

BAIDURI BANK EMPOWERS BUSINESSES THROUGH TRADE FINANCE WORKSHOP

Bandar Seri Begawan, 6 August 2026 – Baiduri Bank recently hosted a two-day Trade Finance Workshop for its Business Banking and Corporate Banking clients at Horizon, Baiduri Enterprise Hub, providing participants with valuable insights into trade finance processes and administrative requirements essential for international trade.

Designed for SMEs and MSMEs involved in import and export activities, the workshop brought together clients with varying levels of trade experience to deepen their understanding of trade finance and equip them with practical knowledge to navigate cross-border transactions more effectively.

The workshop covered key areas including trade finance documentation, operational processes, compliance requirements, and best practices for managing international trade transactions. Through interactive discussions and practical examples, participants gained a clearer understanding of the requirements and procedures involved in facilitating smooth and efficient trade activities.

Speaking at the workshop, Tiffanni Wong, Head of Trade Finance, said:

"As businesses continue to explore opportunities beyond local markets, having a strong understanding of trade finance is increasingly important. Through this workshop, we aim to support our clients by providing practical knowledge and guidance that can help simplify trade processes, improve operational efficiency, and enable them to pursue growth opportunities with greater confidence."

The initiative reflects Baiduri Bank's commitment to supporting the growth and development of Brunei's business community by equipping businesses with the knowledge, tools and expertise needed to succeed in an increasingly connected global marketplace.

Participants also had the opportunity to engage directly with Baiduri Bank's Trade Finance specialists in one-on-one consultations, ask questions, and gain insights into how the Bank's trade finance products and services can help support their business needs.

Baiduri Bank remains dedicated to helping businesses achieve their ambitions by providing tailored financial solutions and advisory support that enable them to scale, expand and navigate the complexities of international trade with confidence.
